Refusal of the Additional CESG and the CLB

This section is optional and should ONLY be used if you DO NOT want to request the Additional CESG and/or the CLB.

This section gives the option to NOT request the Additional CESG and/or the CLB in respect of the beneficiary. Reasons for not requesting these education savings incentives may include:

Note that this section applies to all beneficiaries listed on this form, including ANNEX A.

Definitions

Adjusted income: The adjusted income of a beneficiary's individual primary caregiver is determined by adding together the net income (line 236 of the income tax and benefit return) for the primary caregiver and his or her cohabiting spouse or common-law partner (if applicable) and adjusting this family net income by deducting any universal child care benefit (UCCB) and registered disability savings plan (RDSP) payments received and adding any UCCB and RDSP amounts repaid.

British Columbia Training and Education Savings Grant (BCTESG): $1,200 grant paid into an RESP of an eligible child born in 2006 or later. It is available to children who are resident of British Columbia with a custodial parent/legal guardian who is also a resident of British Columbia at the time the application form is submitted to the RESP provider. A subscriber may be able to apply for the grant in respect of an eligible child no earlier than the beneficiary's 6th birthday and no later than the day before the beneficiary's 9th birthday.

It includes an initial amount for the first year of eligibility and additional amounts for each subsequent year the child continues to be eligible, up to and including the benefit year in which they turn 15 years of age. Custodial parent/legal guardian: Individual, department, agency or institution that has the responsibility of taking care of the child and the legal right to make decisions affecting the child's interests.

Primary caregiver: Individual who is primarily responsible for the care of the child and is eligible for the CCB, and whose name appears on the CCB payments and notice. For more information, contact the CCB call center at: 1 800 387-1193.

Subscriber: Individual or child care agency who opens an RESP, names one or more beneficiaries and may deposit money (contributions) into the RESP.
